

GEPS - Academic Electro and Maritime High School Piran

Name of the school	Academic Electro and Maritime High School Piran
Address of the school	Bolniška cesta 11, 6330 Piran
Short presentation of the school (approx. 50 words, can be also more)	Academic electro and maritime High School Piran is a secondary school that was founded in 1947 in Piran as Slovenian Maritime Trade Academy, that change later it name into Maritime High School. Already in the 1966 they add the electrical department and after different pedagogical changes and changes of curriculum, now they teaching the electrical engineering program besides the maritime programas. In 2013 they joined with the High School Piran into today Academic electro and maritime High School Piran, that in 2017 celebrate its 70 anniversary. They are also strong international oriented and participate in Erasmus+ programs.
Picture of the school
Maximum number of participants allowed by the school (suggested 25, can be less)	25
School visit program	Arrival of participants and a welcome Getting acquainted with the school and tour Final conversation and discussion